A RESOLUTION to proclaim the week of April 3, 1995, as "Week of the Young Child in Anderson County".

WHEREAS, the children of Tennessee are our most precious resource and its greatest hope for the future; and

WHEREAS, our youngest cannot yet vote, lobby, or speak for themselves, however, they are the future workers, parents, college students, taxpayers, soldiers, leaders, and America's hope for the twenty-first century; and

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of all citizens to ensure that our children are physically, educationally, economically, and spiritually safe so they may become the healthy, educated, and productive leaders of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, Anderson, Roane, Morgan, Scott, and Campbell countians take a particular interest in the young child, as they have formed the Anderson County Area Association for the Education of Young Children to study and promote the best interests of our youngest citizens; and

WHEREAS, the AAAEYC provides quality training and workshops on a regular basis to the members that work in the area day care centers, nursery schools, and preschools; and

WHEREAS, two prominent goals of the AAAEYC involve increasing its membership and communications efforts; and

WHEREAS, the AAAEYC wishes to improve the effectiveness of its officers and board members by increasing the membership of its board to include new members from surrounding communities; and

WHEREAS, this laudable organization also wishes to have at least twenty of its members join the Tennessee Association for the Education of Young Children so it may have a voice in matters of statewide concern; and

WHEREAS, on April 3, 1995, the Anderson Area Association for the Education of Young Children will begin its celebration of the Week of the Young Child, and during this week they want to make the community more aware of AAAEYC and its goals; and

WHEREAS, this week of focusing on the needs of our young children and the community services and support available to them will be beneficial to all, and it is appropriate that we designate the week of April 3, 1995, as "Week of the Young Child in Anderson County"; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we hereby declare the week of April 3, 1995, as "Week of the Young Child in Anderson County."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
